To Owners of Horses.

A NUMBER of the merchants of Philadelphia, desirous of promoting the internal intercourse of the state, and of facilitating their trade and connection with the western states, have united themselves into an association, under the name of "The Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Transporting Company." Their object is to reduce and equalize throughout the year, the cost of carriage, and to diminish the time now required, for the transport of merchandize to the western waters. They therefore purpose to establish Lines of Wagons, to start daily from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, to run day and night, changing horses every ten miles.

It must be evident to every enlightened person, that the success of the proposed system is most intimately connected with the interests of the whole community. It is important for the interiour of our state, that the trade of the western country should be maintained with the Atlantick cities; to secure which, the plan now contemplated, it is believed, will be effectual. A reduction in the rates, and in the time required for the transportation of Goods, to and from the Atlantick cities to the western waters, will enable the farmers and others to transmit their products to market with facility and cheapness, and procure a supply of foreign articles on more favourable terms. It will also increase the demand for horses, travelling, the value of lands, and in fine, add much to the improvement and importance of the towns and country on the route. Owners of horses, will find constant and profitable employment for them near their homes, which is surely preferable to uncertain employment at a distance.

PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED,

For hauling the Wagons any number of sections of ten miles, each section, going and returning, to be performed within every twenty hours, and persons desirous of contracting will state the section or sections they will contract for.

The loading as far as Carlisle, will not exceed 4000 lbs. and from thence to Pittsburgh 3500, or 3200 when the roads are in a bad state.

The following conditions will be required.

1. Each contractor must give satisfactory security for the faithful performance of his contract.
2. Each contract must be for one year.
3. The contractor to be at every expense for his horses and driver, including the harness.
4. The Wagons must travel two miles an hour, changing horses every ten miles without any unnecessary delay.
5. The contractors will be accountable to the Company, for all delays or damages which may arise from fraud or mismanagement upon the road, embraced within their contract.

Turnpike and Bridge Tolls will be paid by the Company.

Application to be made by Letter as early as possible, directed to the Subscriber, agent for the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Transporting Company in Philadelphia.

AGENT for the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh Transporting Company.

FOREIGN.

London, June, 4.—Various rumours were circulated yesterday respecting certain acts of atrocious and inhuman treachery, said to have been lately perpetrated by the Dey of Algiers; and of which the British consul, resident in his dominions, was among the foremost victims. The following extract of a letter on the subject from Mr Tupper, our consul at Barcelona, was deemed of sufficient importance to be posted up at Lloyd's. It will be observed with satisfaction, that Mr. Tupper sees reason for discrediting the story:—

"Barcelona May 24, 1817.

"Letters from Alicant, of the 14th inst. advise, that a report prevailed there of the dey of Algiers having again violated all treaties, by the inhuman death of his majesty's consul, and his catholic majesty's consul, with the whole of their suite, &c.; that the fortifications have not only been completely repaired from the effects of the gallant and successful attack of admiral lord Exmouth, but considerably improved; and that the dey had admitted many disaffected French officers, &c. who were occupied in organizing troops, and placing every thing in a formidable state of defence. However, the authenticity of the above is put in doubt by a declaration made me by capt. Dasoy, of the Gibraltar brig Mercury arrived here from Malton on the 19th inst. that before he sailed on the 17th, a Spanish brig commanded by a captain Escuden, arrived on the 15th who sailed from Bona 10th inst. at which period nothing new had transpired, except that two armed Algerine brigs had arrived at said place from Algiers, bound to the eastward, in quest of the frigate, and other presents expected from the grand seignior. I, therefore, indulge the hope of such a horrid catastrophe as reported from Alicant will prove unfounded. (Signed)

"P. C. TUPPER, consul."

June 7.—A bill has been brought into Parliament to extend that toleration to Unitarians in Ireland which they enjoy in England; and instead of a declaration being required of belief in the divinity of Jesus Christ, the declaration should be of a belief that the scriptures contained the revealed will of God.

We have inserted in another part of our paper an extract of a letter from Mr. Tupper, our Consul at Barcelona, in which he seems to discredit the story of some fresh cruelties perpetrated by the Dey of Algiers. We shall be most happy to find there is no truth in it; but we received, at a late hour this morning, from a friend at Paris, the following letter:

"Paris June 4—I take my pen for the purpose of informing you, that the Ambassador from the Court of Spain, resident here, has received despatches announcing the assassination of the Spanish Consul at Algiers. Letters received by different Merchants and bankers here confirm this fact; and it is said that a letter addressed to M. Lafitte, by his correspondent at Marseilles, informs that many Europeans at Algiers have been massacred, with the exception of the French Consul and his family, Dubois Tainville.

"P. S. I have just seen a person in Lafitte's house, who confirms the news mentioned in the letter above alluded to."

At the Wiltz assizes, Henry Maidment, aged 24, was indicted for stealing 89 pounds of tallow, the property of Francis Webb, of Mere. It was stated that Webb had recently received a great deal of tallow, from which the quantity mentioned in the indictment had been taken. It being declared that the prisoner had no counsel, the Judge very cheerfully became his advocate. Judge Abbott, for the prisoner.—How do you know that you lost just 89 pounds of tallow?—I am sure of it, my Lord. Yes, but I want to be sure of it too: do you keep no account of what you receive, or what you use?—No my Lord. What! no book in which you minute down your goods?—Yes, my Lord I keep a day book. Well, that is what I wanted; and did you in this book make any entry of the tallow received, or taken from it, for the purpose of making candles?—No, my Lord for it was not fit to make candles of. No! not fit to make candles of, why then man it was not tallow?—Yes it was my Lord. Then why not fit to make candles of?—Because, my Lord it was not run into tallow. Not run into tallow? No, my Lord. Why then it must be fat and not tallow.—Yes, my Lord. Ah! that's very well. Gentlemen, of the Jury, you find by the prosecutor's evidence that you must acquit the prisoner. This man charges the prisoner with stealing tallow; the prosecutor is a tallow chandler; and yet, gentlemen, you have heard, from this tallow chandler's mouth, that he does not know the difference between tallow and fat.—Acquitted.

More than four close columns of the London Courier of the 6th June are occupied with a report of the trial of Jonathan Wooller, printer, for an alleged libel on the ministry, in an article on the subject of the right of petitioning, published in his newspaper entitled the Black Dwarf. The Attorney General stated that Wooller had a peculiar facility for composition; being a printer, he composed from the dictates of his mind at the case, no manuscript being necessary. The trial had excited a great degree of public interest.—It appears he was twice arraigned. On the first trial, he was acquitted, and the acquittal received with loud applause by the spectators who had assembled. On the second trial, ministerial corruption and oppression were apparent. Although three of the jury would not consent to a verdict of guilty, he was pronounced to be so. The Attorney General was also frequently hissed while making his plea, and Wooller, in his defence applauded.

Fruits of War.—Although the nations of Europe are now exempted from the immediate horrors and distresses attending a state of war, yet they are groaning under the pressure of immense debts, the consequences of which time can only reveal. That of Great Britain is undoubtebly the largest amounting to about 800,000,000*l.* three fourths of which has been contracted since the commencement of the French revolution. The national debt of Austria is also enormous. It has been stated at 200 000,000 florins. Of the debts of the other European Powers, we have seen no statements. They are probably as large as those of England and Austria in proportion to their population. A great part of which has been contracted since the year 1790. From that time to the downfal of Napoleon, war raged almost without intermission in Europe.—Whole countries were desolated and innumerable multitudes of lives sacrificed. All these evils have been caused merely to gratify the ambition or to revenge some supposed insult or injury offered those whose duty it is rather to protect than to destroy and oppress their faithful and obedient subjects. This is indeed paying very dear for the whistle.

FROM THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER.

The following account of the fatal effects resulting from the swallowing of a cent, may not be uninteresting to some of your readers.

In the year 1809, a boy belonging to Mr. R. of this county by accident swallowed a cent. He was about 4 years old. The cent passed down the æsophagus, near to the bifurcation of the trachea, and lodged there until the month of February in the present year, when it descended into the stomach. Until this time the cent occasioned very little inconvenience to him except at the times of eating, when it appeared from his complaints to produce great pain and distress; and when he would run or take much exercise, his breathing became very quick and laborious. Its descent into the stomach was evinced at the above time, by his being able to eat and take exercise without pain or distress. Shortly after its getting into the stomach, his health began to decline, symptoms of dyspepsia came on with a great inclination to eat dirt. His countenance exhibited a bloated appearance, and his extremities swelled, he complained of great pain in his belly, and frequently vomited quantities of blood. Four days before his death he vomited coagulated blood very freely and with it the cent reduced to less than half its former size, and covered on its surfaces with a dark brown oxyde, * as you will see from the cent which I will send to you.—After this the hemorrhage from the stomach returned very violent and terminated his life. Seeing in your paper of the 11th inst. a paragraph of the London Times recommending the administration of powdered charcoal in cases when the oxydes of arsenic or copper have been taken into the stomach, I am led to enquire what may be its effect in such fatal accidents as the above.

Yours respectfully,

REUBEN MEREDITH.

FROM THE NEW-YORK EVENING POST.

INTERESTING LEGAL DECISION.

Supreme Court, January Term, 1817.

It was decided that where a note is not payable at any particular place, and the maker has a known and permanent residence, within the State, the holder is bound to make a demand of payment there, in order to charge the endorser.

As, where a note was dated at New-York, but the maker, before it was payable, removed to Kingston, in Ulster county, and this was known to the holder, a demand of payment or inquiry for the maker in the city of New-York was held not to be sufficient to charge the endorser.

But where a note was dated at Albany, and the maker had removed to Canada, a demand of payment at Albany was held sufficient.

14 Johnson Repts. 114.

GUESS WORK.—When I see a man quit work because he has three or four hired men to oversee, I guess he will have to go to jail to pay them.

When I see a young man possess no more honor than to be dun'd I guess he will never make a man of respectability.

When I see a man suffer a simple wife to run in debt at the stores, for whatever she fancies, I guess he will soon wish he had never been married.

When I see a young lady possess a large portion of pride and affectation, I guess she lacks delicacy and sense.

When I pass a house and see the yard covered with stumps, old hoops, and broken earthenware, I guess the man is a horse jockey, and the woman a spinner of street-yarn.

When I see a woman standing in the door slip-shod, with half a dozen ragged children, and as many more heads peeping through the broken windows, I guess her husband married for love, and do not think he misplaced his affections or begrudge him his happiness.

When I see a woman usurp the whole conversation, I guess she has more loquacity than sense.

When I pass a house and see the dows broken, a bundle of rags in one, a hat in another, I guess the mistress slut and the master loves rum.

When I see a girl visit often, I guess spins more street-yarn than cotton.

When I hear a woman using profane guage, I think it time for swearing to be of fashion.

When I see a country merchant hire clerks to attend his store, while he sits the stove drinking wine, I guess he soon have to take the benefit of the vent act, or take a pleasant tour to Orleans.

PITTSBURGH.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1817.

The present number concludes the first year of the Gazette, since the commencement of the new series. To those of our subscribers, who have been punctual in their payments, we tender our most sincere thanks. Those who are in arrears, will be called on in a few days for the sums due. Subscribers living at a distance who have received the Gazette the whole time that it has been under the management of the present editor, and who have not paid, are indebted three dollars each. This sum, it is hoped, they will lose no time in forwarding to the editor, by mail or otherwise—not forgetting Tom Shuffleton's advice—"pay the post boy Muggins." Large sums are due for advertising.

AWFUL OCCURRENCE.

On Sunday last, (says the Lexington Reporter of July 26) two respectable ladies were killed by lightning in the Presbyterian meeting house in this town—Mrs. Eleanor M'Cullough and Mrs. Jane Luckie.

This truly affecting dispensation of Providence happened during divine worship—the scene of distress and confusion among the congregation, can scarcely be imagined

MAMMOTH HAILSTONE.

John Busby, Esq. of Harrison county, (O) has deposed before Walter B. Beebe, Esq. of Cadiz, that on Sunday the 6th July, he saw fall before his eyes, about thirty feet from him, a mass of congealed matter, which he thinks would have weighed between 30 and 40 pounds, and which by the fall was broken to pieces like hailstones, one of which remained nearly as large as the two fists. Mr. Beebe certifies that the deponent is a man of undoubted veracity.

Speaking of the numerous silly reports which are circulated respecting the probability of the escape of Bonaparte from St. Helena, a London paper says, "The thing is impossible.—From that island he is doomed never to stir—it is to be his prison and his grave."

Cambaceres.—A letter to a Gentleman in Charleston, dated Bruxelles, April 20, thus remarks.—"The too famous, not to say infamous Cambaceres cidevant Archchancellor of the French Empire, who has fixed his abode in this city, is now the model of the most sincere repentance, and of religious virtues. I would not believe such a miracle of grace—if, besides the public report had I not the testimony of his Confessor."

Emigration.—From the 5th to the 9th of July nine hundred and sixteen passengers arrived at the port of Quebec. Of this number five hundred and thirty two were "settlers," and three hundred and eighty-four belonged to the army.

AFRICAN COLONY.

A Society auxiliary to the General Society for providing a colony for the free blacks in the United States is formed at Baltimore. Sherbro, on the coast of Africa, is contemplated for the settlement. It is free from European claims, and surrounded by small peaceable tribes. An agent has already been sent to Africa on the subject, and his report will be received at the next session of Congress.

A French 16-gun schooner, with 300 slaves on board, has been captured by the British, after a smart engagement, in which several of the captors were killed and wounded.

THE PIRATE MITCHELL.

From the gentleman who came passenger in the ship Potomac, from New Orleans, the keeper of the Hotel marine book, learns that the noted Pirate Mitchell, who had been committing depredations in the Gulph of Mexico, for a long time previous, was shot (though not mortally) through the body, on or about the 7th of June, by some military sent from New Orleans, for the purpose of apprehending him. He was found in a small Cabin in the vicinity of the Bayou St. John. It was reported and generally believed in New Orleans, that this desparadoe had sunk, by means of scutling a ship with 30 souls on board, but a short time before he was taken.

A number of packages of Goods had been found in the woods and swamps, in the neighbourhood, both of the Gulph of Mexico and Lake Ponchartrain, all believed from circumstantial evidence of the strongest nature, to have been deposited there by this noted offender.

Norfolk Herald.

Extract of a letter dated St. Mary's, July 5th, 1817.

"I have been down to Amelia to view the new order of things, that place being only nine miles from St. Mary's, where I had the pleasure of seeing the celebrated Patriotic General Sir Gregor M'Gregor. He appears to be about 35 years of age; his height is about five feet eight inches, and is somewhat inclined to corpulency. His appearance is such, that to meet him even in ordinary life, with ordinary people, one would still fancy there was something uncommon about him. A flag has been hoisted for Florida, the field of which is white with a blue cross.

Every one speaks in the highest terms of the character of the commander, who is accessible and affable to all, and also of the officers generally, among whom are some young men of the finest appearance I ever saw, though order and method, (without which no great undertaking can prove fortunate) are not so well observed among them as ought, and perhaps may be, after they have been regulated by time. There appeared to me to be about forty young men attached to this expedition as officers, or who expected to be made officers. Sir Gregor M'Gregor states himself in his proclamations a Brigadier Gen. commissioned by the highest republican authorities in South America."

Savannah, July 5.

Daring Attempt.—For the following statement, we are indebted to the politeness of H. M'Call, Esq.

"A desperate attempt was made to escape from the jaol of this city on the morning of the 5th instant. Five prisoners succeeded in cutting off their irons on the day and night preceding, and determined to knock down Mr, A. Harman, the deputy, with their clogs and shackles, seize the keys, and let out the prisoners in the adjoining room; though they were certain that one of them would receive the contents of his pistol. Thus equipped for action, with the blade of a razor fixed to the end of a stick about a foot long, they arrayed themselves close to the door, and the moment he opened it, they rushed out, and as they threw their weapons Mr. Harman fired at the man in front, who, as he dodged, received the ball in the upper part of the head, which raked the skull for above five inches. One of the shackles hit Mr. Harman upon the top of his head, and another upon his arm, which staggered him considerable. The five then made for the staircase.

A gentleman, who was in the opposite room, a debtor, hearing the alarm, seized a musket loaded with a ball & five buckshot, which he discharged at the crowd as they descended the stairs. Bacon received one of the buckshot in his thigh, and another thro' his leg, and fell; Donavan also received a buckshot in his hip, but proceeded with the other three to the gate. Mr. Harman took another musket, and with two of the servants armed with clubs, pursued the prisoners outside of the gate, where one of them, Coven, separated from the other three by turning the corner to the left. Mr. Harman fired at him and put the ball and five buckshot in the back part of his head, which took the upper part of the skull entirely off. Mr. Harman and the servants pursued the other three about two hundred yards, where Donavan was overtaken and knocked down by one of the servants, with his club, and so much disabled as to be unable to proceed farther.—The pursuit was continued about four hundred yards, when the other servant overtook Bush, gave him a blow, and he surrendered. Mr. Harman overtook Crutchfield about five hundred yards from the gaol, gave him a blow over the head, which bent the barrel of the musket and brought him to the ground. Thus, with so many disadvantages on the part of Mr. Harman, opposed by such a superiority of numbers, one of the prisoners was killed, one badly and two slightly wounded with the bullets and buckshot, and one escaped. Coven, Bacon and Bush, were under sentence of the penitentiary. Crutchfield and Donavan, were charged with robbery theft and swindling."

From the Genesee (N. Y.) Farmer of July 10.

A remarkable circumstance happened on the 30th ult. on the Genesee river, about ten miles above this place. A part of the land on the north bank has fallen into and across the river so as completely to change the course of the stream which was at this place about eighty yards wide. The land on the south side of the river was level for some distance; on the north there rose a very high and steep hill, commencing about 20 or 30 feet from the edge of the bank.—Along the intermediate space a road passed, the level of which was not more than six or eight feet above that of the water.—In the afternoon of the day above mentioned about half an acre of the bank fell into the river. About half past ten o'clock at night the people in the neighborhood were suddenly alarmed by a tremendous noise from the hill, accompanied by a jarring of the houses. Upon going immediately out they discovered huge masses of the mountain tumbling from above into the river, & dashing the waters to a great height. About fifteen acres of the surface is supposed to have fallen. The cavity left in the hill is of a circular form, the back part of which presents a precipice nearly perpendicular of about 150 feet in height. Several of the trees which stood on the side of the mountain yet remain in an erect posture, having been carried down in that position on masses of the earth; the tops of others are buried in the ruins, while their roots are raised into the air. The current of the river being completely obstructed, it has risen above the oposite bank, and is now forming a new channel for a considerable distance.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser.

Yesterday the Africans of this town celebrated in the usual manner the Anniversary of the Abolition of the Slave Trade. We have received from anonymous correspondents several accounts of their celebration, which was conducted with propriety and decency, very creditable to the blacks of this town, but none of these accounts appears to be authentic. We give the following specimen of falsehoods by which some evil disposed persons have attempted to impose upon us. The good education and understanding of many of the managers of the African Celebration, are so well known, that it cannot be supposed that they would seriously write such nonsense as the following:

"More cocked hats was worn that day than ever before on the same occashun which was a very interesting sight espeshully the childrun. After the parade we moved to the African Meetuns where an address was delivered for the edifigation of the herers, after which we dined together. Many good tosts and men were drunk after dinner, that is I mean their helths were drunk. Among the tosts was the following.

"Governur Bronks. May the mantelpiece of Caleb Strong fall upon the head of his distinguished predecessor.

Encouragement to Americeen malefacturs. We want none of form groth, while they flurish so well at home.

Harvard Cotlage, the African school and simultur undertakins. May benefactuers rise up like the rane from heven, and may they be nurseries of virtuus, men also the States Prisson."

Harrisburgh, July 12.

A NURSE WANTED.

The Presbyterian congregation, finding that the children are likely to become burthensome to their fathers and mothers, and liable to accidents while engaged in their little gambols at church, whereby they might possibly disturb those who are so attached to old customs as to be devout and attentive, are disposed to give a liberal compensation, to any person humanely disposed to protect the little truants from harms-way.

FROM THE PORT FOLIO.

SUICIDE.

In an order issued by Bonaparte when he was First Consul, there are these remarkable expressions against suicide—"To abandon one's self to chagrin, and to kill one's self in order to escape from it, is to abandon the field of battle without having conquered." On an attentive examination of the history of this crime, I believe it will appear 1st. That the distinguished suicides of antiquity, were urged to self destruction either by despair or criminal selfishness; that they were greatly blamed by the wisest of their contemporaries, and that their deaths were always unfortunate for their country. 2d. That almost all the suicides, ancient or modern, have been atrocious criminals, men without morals or principles, or females misled by the violence of their passions; and lastly, That the writings of the apologists of this offence against God and man have greatly increased the number of offenders. Among the papers of Mr. Budgell, the unfortunate friend of Addison, who put an end to his life to escape from misfortune, one was found to contain these words in his own hand writing: "What Cato did, and Addison approved, cannot be wrong." It is not true however, that Addison approved of suicide.—The sentiments he attributes to the stoic Cato, whose false philosophy permitted self-murder, should not be considered as the sentiments of Addison himself.

FROM THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.

Preamble to a Letter from the Dey of Algiers to the President of the United States—Translated from the Arabic.

[This curious specimen of the modern regal style of the East, was sent to us from the Mediterranean, by a gentleman who was at Algiers soon after the Dey's letter was written, and who was acquainted with our consul at that place. We can vouch therefore, for its genuineness, and the accuracy of the translation.

With the aid and assistance of Divinity, and in the reign of our Sovereign, the Asylum of the world, powerful and great monarch, transactor of all good actions, the best of men, the shadow of God, Director of the Good Order, king of kings, supreme ruler of the world, emperor of the earth, emulator of Alexander the Great, possessor of great forces, sovereign of the two worlds and of the seas, king of Arabia and Persia, emperor, son of an emperor and conqueror, Mahmood Kan, (may God end his life with prosperity and his reign be everlasting and glorious,) his humble and obedient servant, actual sovereign, governor and chief of Algiers, submitted forever to the order of his imperial Majesty's noble throne, Omar Pasha (may his government be happy and prosperous);—

To his majesty the emperor of America, its adjacent and dependent provinces and coasts, and wherever his government may extend, our noble friend, the support of kings of the nations of Jesus, the pillar of all Christian sovereigns, the most glorious amongst the princes, elected amongst many lords and nobles, the happy, the great, the amiable James Madison, emperor of America, (may his reign be happy and glorious and his life long and prosperous,) wishing him long possession of the seat of his blessed throne and long life and health amen; hoping that your health is in good state, I inform you that mine is excellent (thanks to the Supreme Being,) constantly addressing my prayers to the Almighty for your felicity, &c. &c.

DR. LEE'S (WINDHAM)

BILIOUS PILLS,

OR

FAMILY PHYSIC.

THE above named pills, are the true and original patent Lee's Pills, and are the first Pills for which a patent was ever granted in America.

The universal esteem in which these Pills have been held for many years, as a mild, safe and efficacious Family Medicine, and the great and increasing demand for them, in most parts of the United States and West Indies, has induced several wicked and unprincipled dealers in medicines (particularly in Philadelphia) to make and sell Pills, which they style Lee's Windham Bilious Pills; making use of a copy of his bill of directions, &c. and offering the same for sale, as the genuine Lee's Pills, whereas the true and original Lee's Pills were never prepared in any place except in Windham, (Con.) nor by any persons except the proprietors of the patent. To guard against deceptions of this kind, the public are requested to observe, that each box of the true Lee's Pills, is enclosed in an elegant steel plate label, with these words on the sides thereof: Lee's genuine Windham Bilious Pills: and on the end of the label, the words, Samuel Lee, Patentee, &c. I. Thompson, agent, joint proprietor. &c. and should any be offered for sale without said label on them, the purchaser may be assured that they are counterfeit and not the genuine Lee's Pills. To those who are in the habit of using the genuine pills, the fraud is easily discovered by their effects, and those who may wish to make use of them may guard against counterfeits and imposters, and always be sure of the genuine pills, by observing that they purchase none unless they are enclosed in the label aforesaid.

The proprietors have for several years past expended large sums, in order to break down counterfeiters and dishonest dealers, but are yet convinced that there are some, who not only disregard the laws and the rights of others, but the injuries they do to the community, by selling their own dangerous compositions, for the genuine Lee's Pills, whenever they think they can do it without being detected & brought to justice. For the purpose of putting a stop to such nefarious traffic, the proprietors have been at very great expence in procuring the stereotype label, and the public may rest assured, that no genuine pills will be sold without the label being around each box; and as a further inducement to the public to be on their guard against the designs of those dealers in medicines, who keep such counterfeit pills in their shops. The proprietors hereby offer a reward of Three Hundred Dollars, to any person who will prove to conviction, the person or persons who shall make or sell such counterfeit pills, and as proper steps have been taken to discover those persons who sell such counterfeit pills, and on whom suspicion already rests, it is hoped that their names will soon be before the public, as dealers in counterfeit medicines, and their persons before the district court of the U. States, to answer for an infringement of the patent.

The approbation of medical gentlemen and the opinion of many thousands of respectable persons who have experienced the good effect of the genuine Lee's Pills, as a mild, safe and efficacious purgative, for removing jaundice, headach, indigestion, costiveness, cholic, autumnal fevers, and all Bilious complaints, are it is presumed, a sufficient recommendation to those who may wish to make use of them in families or elsewhere.

The genuine Lee's Pills, are sold by the most of those druggists in the U. States who choose to keep good articles of medicine in preference to base ones. A deposit of the genuine pills, will always be kept at the store of Thatcher and Thompson, N. W. corner of Market and Second street; by the proprietors of the patent, where druggists and others, may always be certain of obtaining the true pills, on the same terms as of the patentee.
